With deep thanks also to Inspector Bias, all the ceremonial staff and the entire GCM.

- Solemn Ceremony of Investiture and Recognition

On February 23, 2019, we held the solemn annual ceremony of investiture, promotion and decoration of Lazarus Union Brazil. This ceremony took place in the parish of Our Lady Achiropita, São Paulo..

In addition to having relied again on a musical environment, this time provided by its Choir, we had the honor to receive a large entourage of the Municipal Civil Guard of São Paulo and to have the presence of delegations of various associations and organizations that share our philanthropic, humanitarian, charitable, egalitarian and humanistic ideals.

Our honorable chivalrous ranks received new members and recognized not only the actions of our members through promotions and decorations, but also honored some of the more than 3,200 valiant volunteers who are part of the Lazarus Union Brazil.

In a ceremony full of remarkable and important moments, in which relevant projects and a record of actions of 2018 were announced, several of our members were elevated to the high spheres of the Knighthood of Honor, and mainly we carried out the grant of one of the most important honors of our headquarters in Vienna to the Command of the Metropolitan Civil Guard of São Paulo.

This year's ceremony served as an instrument for collecting food for the needy and we were very happy to announce that almost 500 kg of food was received and donated to the social works of the Parish of Our Lady of Achiropita.

In moments like these, when we open our hearts and doors to all, and in which the devotion and humility of each of those involved in this project are evident, that we effectively put our true Christian values into evidence and that we put to aside any and all petty sparseness linked to personal titles or disputes for power and ego.

Congratulations to all those involved and a great thank you to all who have made the effort to come to the ceremony and have given us the happiness to share with us of these remarkable moments.

Tactical Combat Casualty Care - TCCC or Pre-Hospital Tactical Care is the new standard of pre-hospital care in combat, established by the National Association of Emergency Medical Technicians (NAEMT), one of the most important research and development institutions in emergency and medical emergency in pre-hospital trauma. It is a civil institution that standardizes the protocols of care for trauma victims all over the world.

The TCCC was developed to meet a very evident needs, reduce the number of preventable deaths in combat and ensure the safety of the combatant who provides assistance, soon it was observed that the standard of care to the wounded used by combatants did not differ from the care provided on the streets of the United States to the civilian public. Studies found that mortality rates within the theaters of World War II, Vietnam and Gulf operations were due to specific injuries and very different from those found in the urban civilian environment.

In this training the officers of the Health and Medicine Corps of Lazarus Union Brazil - Lazarus Union International aimed to implement the TCCC protocol, adapting its operability for urban combat, within the reality experienced by the security forces, Military Police, Municipal Guards, Federal Police, Federal Highway Policemen, Prison Agents and others, focusing on the arms apparatus and the "modus operandi" of the aggressors, developing new procedures with specific tactical actions, using techniques and tactics appropriate to the terrain in which the combat takes place and the various attributions and activities employed by the Security Forces.
